

Hello Dear sir or Madam,

Now the opportunity that I would like to share with you is truly unique, as you may know, The RTX 3090 founders Edition was launched in September of 2020, but few people were able to get their hands on these lucrative products. Well I have some very good news for you, because, my friend, my boss has a large cache of these highly desired products waiting to be shipped straight to you!

So today, I use this opportunity to send this letter to you believing that it will reach you in good State. You see, this stockpile of products actually belongs to Mr. Shaquille O'Neal, legendary basketball player, actor, philanthropist, and owner of the wildly successfully Shaquille O'Neal Motors car dealership in Orlando Florida. My boss is a kind man and is willing to share his fortunes with a select number of lucky individuals like yourself.

I am thereby seeking for a reliable person, such as yourself - to play an integral part in this process in receiving these products for absolutely free of charge. However, these products were erroneously shipped to the country of Nigeria where customs are holding it due to the high value of these products. In order for me to send you them, I need to get customs to release these products which requires a small sum of $6,900 USD. I hope that you will be able to help cover for these funds for the time being as my American Eagle credit card is not accepted in Nigeria. So please - if you can, send the funds to the customs Bank Account here using exclusively BITCOIN as they can accept that as proper payment for clearly customs.

Please respond immediately to oliVia0419@notphishing.honest.com and provide me with a BITCOIN account with the requested funds so I may quickly ship the products to your location.

I will fill you in with further details such as freight upon your swift reply. Please be informed that the confidentiality of this transaction is of the utmost importance, and no one else, in particular, the authorities, should not be alerted to this deal as it is dangerous to your health and wellbeing.
